WORGAN GAMES

Our journey of growth so far

Worgan Games is a UK-based, family-run, indie game publisher with a passion for creating easy to learn and seriously addictive games. We make high quality, family friendly card games that stand out on shelves.

Mar 2024

Four siblings with a lifelong love of games come together to create Worgan Games.

Oct 2024

We hit our goal of releasing six games in our first (half) year. Sales begin to climb as we head toward Christmas.

Christmas 2024

We sold over 20,000 units between Guess That Noise and Sneaky Goose on Amazon UK in December (less than 10 weeks after their release!).

Jan 2025

We hit the ground running, switching to a new supplier (the largest in the world!) to deliver even higher quality products at a larger scale.

Mar 2025

We doubled down on what works: expanding the Guess That… series with 3 new titles and launching 5 translated versions of our games in France, and Germany.

May 2025

We set our sights on new sales channels, signed up to exhibit at the Autumn Fair and began preparing to take orders from retailers.

Q4 and 2026

Expect exciting expansions and brand-new IPs. Our focus remains on reach, quality, and building a long-term brand presence.
